

BEGINNER TENNIS

Become a better player with this five-week program

Definition of Levels

Beginner Appropriate for players new to tennis and players with basic instruction prior to joining. Clinics focus on continuing to develop proper form and technique with a focus on increasing rallying and point play. At the end of this series, expect to keep a consistent rally and with a basic understanding of point play. Participants can join this series twice.

Advanced Beginner Continue to develop consistency on groundstrokes, volleys and serve and regularly play points. We will begin to introduce the use of specific shots in point development. Participants have unlimited enrollment for this series.
